MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

1 Plaintiff Yesenia Melgar respectfully submit this memorandum in support of her Motion for 2 Final Approval of Class Action Settlement (the “Motion”).

3 I. INTRODUCTION

4 This is a class action suit brought by Plaintiff on behalf of herself and all others similarly 5 situated against Defendants Zicam LLC and Matrixx Initiatives Inc. (collectively, “Defendants”) 6 for, inter alia, deceiving customers by falsely representing that the Zicam Products reduce the 7 duration and severity of a cold.

8 On June 5, 2018, this Court certified the proposed nationwide class¹ and granted
9 preliminary approval of the Stipulation of Settlement,² which requires Defendants to pay $16 10 million into a Settlement Fund for the benefit of the Settlement Class. Order Granting Preliminary 11 Approval of Proposed Settlement (Dkt. No. 185); see also Stipulation of Settlement, Article 2.1.
12 The Settlement includes all persons in the United States who purchased the challenged Zicam 13 Products³ between February 15, 2011, and June 5, 2018. Id., Article 1.20. Under the terms of the 14 Stipulation of Settlement, Settlement Class Members will receive (1) a refund based on the 15 manufacturer’s suggested retail price (“MSRP”) for up to five units of the Settlement Class 16 Products with no proof of purchase, or (2) a refund based on the MSRP for six or more units of the 17 Settlement Class Products if proof of purchase is submitted. Id., Article 2.4-2.6. While recoveries 18 will vary based on the number of claims submitted and the number of products claimed by each 19 claimant, Plaintiff estimates that the average recovery for each class member who submitted a 20 claim will be approximately $75-$85. That is a tremendous recovery for each individual class 21 member and is the equivalent of a full refund for more than six Zicam Products. Plaintiff sought to 22

23 ¹ To avoid repetition, Plaintiff has not included her discussion of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a) and 23(b)(3) 24 in this Motion. Plaintiff’s arguments regarding class certification can be found in her motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement (Dkt. No. 180), § V.

25 ² The Stipulation of Settlement (“Settlement” or “Stipulation of Settlement”) and its exhibits are 26 attached as Exhibit 1 to the Declaration of Scott Bursor (“Bursor Decl.”), filed with the Motion for Preliminary Approval, Dkt. No. 180-1. All capitalized terms herein that are not otherwise defined have the definitions set forth in the Settlement Agreement.

27 ³ Zicam Products means RapidMelts Original, RapidMelts Ultra, Oral Mist, Ultra Crystals, Liqui-28 Lozenges, Lozenges Ultra, Soft Chews, Medicated Fruit Drops, and Chewables.

1 recover a full refund for the Zicam Products at trial. Instead, this same best-case scenario recovery 2 was made available now, to all Settlement Class Members, without further delay or risk.

3 In accordance with the notice program approved by the Court, direct mail and email notice 4 was sent to more than 164,000 purchasers for whom Defendants had address information. See 5 Declaration of Tina Chiango (“Chiango Decl.”) ¶¶ 1-10. In addition, on July 5, 2018, the 6 Settlement Administrator launched the 90-day media plan approve by the Court. Id. ¶ 10. To date, 7 more than 100,000 Settlement Class Members have submitted claims and only one objection (from 8 an infamous serial objector) and seven requests for exclusion have been submitted in response to 9 notice of the Settlement. Id. ¶¶ 13-15. As shown below, the Settlement not only satisfies Rule 10 23’s “fair, reasonable, and adequate” standard, it is an outstanding result for Plaintiff and the 11 Settlement Class. The Court should grant final approval.

12 II. TERMS OF THE SETTLEMENT

13 A. Monetary Relief for Class Members

14 Pursuant to the terms of the Settlement, Defendants will pay $16 million into a Settlement 15 Fund for the benefit of the Settlement Class. Under the Settlement, Class Members who submit 16 valid claims will recover according to the average MSRP during the Class Period for each of the 17 Zicam Products purchased. Stipulation of Settlement, Article 2.4(a). Claims based on purchases of 18 up to five units of the Zicam Products will be paid without requiring proof of purchase. Id., Article 19 2.5. Claims based on purchases of six or more units of the Zicam Products will require proof of 20 purchase. Id. Payment will be adjusted based on the number of claims submitted and the portion 21 of the Settlement Fund available for distribution. This structure will ensure total exhaustion of the 22 Settlement Fund, with every penny going directly to class members (after distribution of costs, 23 attorneys’ fees and the incentive award). Id., Article 2.7.

24 “To assess whether the amount offered is fair, the Court may compare the settlement 25 amount to the parties’ estimates of the maximum amount of damages recoverable in a successful 26 litigation.” See Shames v. Hertz Corp., 2012 WL 5392159, at *6 (S.D. Cal. Nov. 5, 2012) (citing 27 In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig., 213 F.3d 454, 459 (9th Cir. 2000)); Monterrubio v. Best Buy 28 Stores, L.P., 291 F.R.D. 443, 454 (E.D. Cal. 2013) (granting preliminary approval where class

1 recovery represented “30% of Plaintiff’s maximum damages analysis”). Here, the maximum 2 amount of damages that each Settlement Class Member would be entitled to recover if Plaintiff 3 was successful at trial would be the retail price of each of the Settlement Class Products that they 4 purchased. Plaintiff’s Expert Designation and Disclosures (Dkt. No. 38), Declaration of Colin B.
5 Weir ¶¶ 6 and 10.

6 To date, more than 100,000 class members have submitted claims. Chiango Decl. ¶ 15.
7 Plaintiff estimates that each class member who submitted a claim will receive approximately $75-
8 $85 on average depending on the number of claims submitted prior to the October 3 deadline.⁴
9 That is a tremendous recovery for each individual class member because the manufacturer 10 suggested retail price of the Zicam Products ranged from $6 to $12. See Exh. A to Stipulation of 11 Settlement (claim form showing average manufacturer’s suggested retail price during the class 12 period as ranging from $6.16 to $11.53). Thus, a class member recovering $75 is receiving the 13 equivalent of a full refund for more than six Zicam Products. Plaintiff sought to recover a full 14 refund for the Zicam Products at trial. Instead, this same best-case scenario recovery was made 15 available now, to all Settlement Class Members, without further delay or risk. See Shames, 2012 16 WL 5392159, at *7 (granting final approval of settlement and noting that “[w]hen compared to the 17 estimated actual damages [of $3 a day], the $2 cash option represents a recovery of at least 67% of 18 actual damages” and “compensates each class member for nearly all of—or slightly more than—19 his or her actual damages”). Therefore, the Settlement benefits are clearly fair to the Settlement 20 Class Members.

21 B. Release and Discharge of Claims

22 The Stipulation of Settlement provides for a specific release of all claims or the factual or 23 legal allegations made in the Action, including without limitation the alleged inefficacy of the 24 Zicam Products and/or the purchase of any of the Zicam Products at any time on or after February

25 _____
26 ⁴ This amount is calculated as follows: $16,000,000 - $5,333,333.33 (proposed attorneys’ fee
27 award) - $897,220 (estimated notice and claims administration expenses) - $286,526.64 (Class 28 Counsel’s costs and expenses) - $10,000 (Plaintiff Melgar’s proposed incentive award) = $9,472,920.03. If the total number of valid claims ultimately reaches 120,000, each class member would receive $78.94 on average ($9,472,920.03/120,000). For 110,000 claims, each class member would receive $86.12 on average ($9,472,920.03/110,000).

1 15, 2011 through June 5, 2018. Stipulation of Settlement, Article 6.1; see also Preliminary 2 Approval Order (Dkt. No. 185). The release will forever terminate this litigation involving 3 Defendants and the Plaintiff in this Action, once the Settlement becomes effective as defined in the 4 Stipulation of Settlement, Article 1.10.

5 C. Payment of Attorneys' Fees and Expenses

6 The Parties have reached an agreement, in good faith, concerning the award of attorneys' 7 fees and costs to be paid from the Settlement Fund to Class Counsel. Pursuant to the Settlement, 8 Class Counsel will make an application to the Court for an Attorneys' Fee Award in an amount not 9 to exceed one third of the Settlement Fund. Id., Article 3.1. Class Counsel shall also apply 10 separately for an award of their costs and expenses from the Settlement Fund. Id.

11 D. Compensation for the Class Representatives

12 Pursuant to the Stipulation of Settlement, Plaintiff will petition the Court for approval of an 13 Incentive Award payable to the Class Representative in an amount not to exceed $10,000.00. Id., 14 Article 3.2.

15 E. Payment of Notice and Administrative Fees

16 The Settlement Administrator's actual costs and expenses of providing notice to the Class
17 and administering the settlement in accordance with the Stipulation of Settlement shall be paid 18 from the Settlement Fund.⁵ Id., Articles 2.1 and 4.5.

19 III. THE STANDARD FOR FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENTS

20 In evaluating a class action settlement under Rule 23, a district court must determine 21 whether the settlement is fundamentally fair, reasonable, and adequate. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2).
22 In evaluating the fairness of a class action settlement, courts are mindful that the law favors the 23 compromise and settlement of class action suits. See, e.g., Churchill Vill., L.L.C. v. Gen. Elec., 361 24 F.3d 566, 576 (9th Cir. 2004); Class Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle, 955 F.2d 1268, 1276 (9th Cir.
25 1992); Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm'n, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982). The Manual
26 for Complex Litigation states:

27 ⁵ Notice costs also include notification to the Attorney General of the United States and the 28 Attorney General of California in accordance with the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005 ("CAFA"), 28 U.S.C. § 1715(b). See Stipulation of Settlement, Article 2.9.

1 The judge can encourage the settlement process by asking at the first pretrial 2 conference whether settlement discussions have occurred or might be scheduled.

3 Manual, Fourth § 13.11 at 167. “Courts have afforded a presumption of fairness and 4 reasonableness of a settlement agreement where that agreement was the product of non-collusive, 5 arms’ length negotiations by capable and experienced counsel.” In re Netflix Privacy Litig., 2013 6 WL 1120801, at *4 (N.D. Cal. Mar. 18, 2013). Where, as here, the settlement negotiations were 7 conducted at arm’s-length by experienced class action counsel, counsel’s assessment and judgment 8 are entitled to a presumption of reasonableness, and the court is entitled to rely heavily upon 9 counsel’s assessment and judgment. Boyd v. Bechtel Corp., 485 F. Supp. 610, 622 (N.D. Cal.
10 1979). Indeed, “the court’s intrusion upon what is otherwise a private consensual agreement 11 negotiated between the parties to a lawsuit must be limited to the extent necessary to reach a 12 reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or overreaching by, or collusion 13 between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a whole, is fair, reasonable and 14 adequate to all concerned.” Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625. Ultimately, however, the 15 decision to approve a settlement is committed to the sound discretion of the trial judge. Hanlon v.
16 Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1026 (9th Cir. 1998).

17 IV. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, ADEQUATE AND REASONABLE

18 In answering the question of whether a settlement is fair, adequate and reasonable as 19 prescribed by Rule 23(e), district courts have been instructed to balance several factors: (1) the 20 strength of Plaintiff’s case; (2) the risk, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further 21 litigation; (3) the risk of maintaining class action status throughout the trial; (4) the amount offered 22 in settlement; (5) the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings; (6) the 23 experience and views of counsel; and (7) the reaction of the class members to the proposed 24 settlement. Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1026; Churchill, 361 F.3d at 575. Here, the balance of the factors 25 demonstrates that settlement warrants final approval because it is fair, adequate and reasonable.

26 A. Strength of Plaintiff’s Case and Risk of Continuing 27 Litigation

28 In determining the likelihood of a plaintiff’s success on the merits of a class action, “the

1 district court’s determination is nothing more than an amalgam of delicate balancing, gross
2 approximations and rough justice.” Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625 (internal quotations
3 omitted). The court may “presume that through negotiation, the Parties, counsel, and mediator
4 arrived at a reasonable range of settlement by considering Plaintiff’s likelihood of recovery.”
5 Garner v. State Farm. Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 2010 WL 1687832, at *9 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 22, 2010)
6 (citing Rodriguez v. W. Publ’g Corp., 563 F.3d 948, 965 (9th Cir. 2009)).

7 Plaintiff believes that she could prove to a jury that the Zicam Products are mere placebos.
8 That belief is based on the testimony of Plaintiff’s experts, the academic literature, and the 9 discovery taken in this action. Indeed, when Class Counsel finally resolved settlement negotiations 10 on the eve of trial, Plaintiff’s trial strategy was finalized. Fisher Decl., ¶¶ 2-10 and 27-32; see 11 generally Plaintiff’s Trial Brief (Dkt. No. 140). But Plaintiff also understands that proceeding to 12 trial poses serious risks. Such considerations have been found to weigh heavily in favor of 13 settlement. See Rodriguez, 563 F.3d at 966; Curtis-Bauer v. Morgan Stanley & Co., Inc., 2008 WL 14 4667090, at *4 (N.D. Cal. Oct. 22, 2008) (“Settlement avoids the complexity, delay, risk and 15 expense of continuing with the litigation and will produce a prompt, certain, and substantial 16 recovery for the Plaintiff class.”).

17 Plaintiff marshaled a technical and persuasive strategy for her case in chief. Nonetheless, 18 Defendants had retained an esteemed cadre of expert witnesses from all over the world to support 19 their defense that the Zicam Products were effective. This impressive group of experts included 20 Dr. Harri Hemila from the University of Helsinki in Finland, Dr. Ronald Eccles from Cardiff 21 University in Wales, Dr. Peter Fisher from the Royal Hospital in London, Dr. Sabrina Sobel from 22 Hofstra University in New York, and Dr. David Stewart from Loyola Marymount University in 23 Los Angeles. Dkt. No. 36. These experts are well-qualified and highly skilled in their respective 24 fields. Id. In this “battle of experts,” it is virtually impossible to predict with any certainty which 25 testimony would be credited, and ultimately, which expert testimony the jury would accept.

26 In Class Counsel’s experience, these considerations can make the ultimate outcome of a 27 trial highly uncertain. Indeed, after similar battles of experts in cases concerning the effectiveness 28 of over-the-counter drug products, two separate juries concluded that the respective plaintiffs had

1 not met their burden of proof and found for defendants on every claim. See Allen v. Hyland's Inc., 2 Central District of California Case No. 12-cv-01150-DMG-MAN, Dkt. 426 (Verdict Form); see
3 also Lewert v. Boiron, Inc., Central District of California Case No. 11-cv-10803, Dkt. 447 (Verdict 4 Form). The results of the Allen and Lewert trials are sobering. These examples make clear that a 5 favorable result cannot be guaranteed for the class. There is no guarantee that the verdict in this 6 action would be any different than the verdict in these trials. See Shames, 2012 WL 5392159, at *6 7 (“Plaintiffs faced significant uncertainty and risk of nonrecovery at trial, making a pre-trial 8 settlement a reasonable tactical choice.”).

9 Beyond the inherent risks of a jury trial, Plaintiff also faced substantial risk from 10 Defendants’ motions in limine. The Court could have given the jury instructions Plaintiff 11 disfavored, or allowed prejudicial evidence (in Plaintiff’s opinion) to be introduced. By settling, 12 Plaintiff avoids the risk of trial and guarantees a recovery to the class. Since the risks of 13 proceeding to trial are substantial, the settlement warrants approval. See e.g., Nat’l Rural 14 Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221 F.R.D. 523, 526 (C.D. Cal. 2004) (“The Court shall 15 consider the vagaries of litigation and compare the significance of immediate recovery by way of 16 the compromise to the mere possibility of relief in the future, after protracted and expensive 17 litigation. In this respect, ‘It has been held proper to take the bird in hand instead of a prospective 18 flock in the bush.’”).

19 Finally, even if Plaintiff were to prevail at trial, the class would face additional risks if 20 Defendants appealed or moved for a new trial. For example, in In re Apple Computer Sec. Litig., 21 1991 WL 238298, at *1 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 6, 1991), the jury rendered a verdict for plaintiffs after an 22 extended trial. Based on the jury’s findings, recoverable damages would have exceeded $100 23 million. However, weeks later, the Court overturned the verdict, entering judgment 24 notwithstanding the verdict for the individual defendants, and ordered a new trial with respect to 25 the corporate defendant. Id. at 2. By settling here, Plaintiff and the Class avoid these risks, as well 26 as the delays and risks associated with the appellate process.

27 B. Risk of Maintaining Class Action Status

28 In addition to the risks of continuing the litigation, Plaintiff would also face risks in 1 maintaining class status through trial and appeal. The class could still be decertified at any time.

2 See In re Netflix Privacy Litig., 2013 WL 1120801, at *6 (N.D. Cal. Mar. 18, 2013) (“The notion 3 that a district court could decertify a class at any time is one that weighs in favor of settlement.”)
4 (internal citations omitted). From their prior experience, Class Counsel anticipates that Defendants 5 would likely move to appeal the Court’s class certification decision. Here, the Stipulation of 6 Settlement eliminates these risks by ensuring class members a recovery that is “certain and 7 immediate, eliminating the risk that class members would be left without any recovery ... at all.”
8 Fulford v. Logitech, Inc., 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 29042, at *8 (N.D. Cal. Mar. 5, 2010).

9 C. Extent of Discovery and Status of Proceedings

10 The Court must also evaluate whether Class Counsel had sufficient information to make an 11 informed decision about the merits of the case. See In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig., 213 F.3d 12 454, 459 (9th Cir. 2000). The settlement was reached on the eve of trial, after four years of 13 discovery and hard-fought litigation. Given the procedural history of this case, there can be no 14 doubt that Class Counsel had sufficient information to make an informed decision about the merits 15 of this case as compared to the benefit provided by the proposed settlement. See Plaintiff’s Motion
16 for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement (Dkt. No. 180), § II. Additionally, substantial 17 settlement negotiations have taken place between the Parties and settlement was only reach after 18 Class Counsel fully understood the strengths and weakness of the case. Schiller v. David’s Bridal, 19 Inc., 2012 WL 13040405, at *2 (E.D. Cal. June 28, 2012) (granting final approval where the parties 20 “conducted extensive and costly investigation and research ... to reasonably evaluate their 21 respective positions ... [and] settlement at this time will avoid additional substantial costs, as well 22 as avoid the delay and risks that would be presented by the further prosecution of the Action.”)

23 Notably, when a settlement is negotiated at arm’s-length by experienced counsel, there is a 24 presumption that it is fair and reasonable. See In re Pac. Enterprises Sec. Litig., 47 F.3d 373, 378
25 (9th Cir. 1995); 4/27/2018 Feinberg Decl. (Dkt. No. 180-2) ¶ 12. The Parties also worked closely 26 with no less than four separate mediators. See Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class
27 Action Settlement (Dkt. No. 180), § II.B. Kenneth Fienberg, a renowned and experienced 28 mediator, ultimately facilitated the Parties’ resolution. 4/27/2018 Feinberg Decl. (Dkt. No. 180-2)

1 ¶¶ 5, 7-12; see also In re Bluetooth Headset Products Liab. Litig., 654 F.3d 935, 946 (9th Cir.
2 2011) (“[The] presence of a neutral mediator [is] a factor weighing in favor of a finding of non-3 collusiveness.”). There can be no doubt that Class Counsel was full-informed about the merits of 4 the case.

5 D. Experience and Views of Counsel

6 “With regard to class action settlements, the opinions of counsel should be given 7 considerable weight both because of counsel’s familiarity with this litigation and previous 8 experience with cases.” Turk v. Gale/Triangle, Inc., 2017 WL 4181088, at *3 (E.D. Cal. Sept. 21, 9 2017) (quoting West v. Circle K Stores, Inc., 2006 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 76558, *17–18 (E.D. Cal. Oct.
10 19, 2006)). The “trial court is entitled to rely upon the judgment of experienced counsel for the 11 parties....Indeed, the trial judge, absent fraud, collusion, or the like, should be hesitant to substitute 12 its own judgment for that of counsel.” Turk, 2017 WL 4181088, at *3 (quotation omitted).
13 Deference to Class Counsel’s evaluation of the Settlement is appropriate because “[p]arties 14 represented by competent counsel are better positioned than courts to produce a settlement that 15 fairly reflects each party’s expected outcome in litigation.” Rodriguez, 563 F.3d at 967 (citing In re 16 Pac. Enterprises Sec. Litig., 47 F.3d 373, 378 (9th Cir. 1995)).

17 Here, the Settlement was negotiated by counsel with extensive experience in consumer 18 class action litigation. See Fisher Decl. Ex. A (firm resume of Bursor & Fisher, P.A.). Based on 19 their collective experience, Class Counsel concluded that the Stipulation of Settlement provides 20 exceptional results for the class while sparing the class from the uncertainties of continued and 21 protracted litigation

22 E. Presence of a Governmental Participant

23 The government need not be involved with a class action settlement. However, the Class 24 Action Fairness Act (“CAFA”) requires that notice of the settlement be delivered to the Attorney 25 General of the United States, and to each attorney general of each state where class members 26 reside. 28 U.S.C. § 1715(b). Here, no attorney general has objected. Fisher Decl., ¶ 10. The lack 27 of government involvement weighs in favor of approving the Settlement as agreed to by the 28 Parties. See Petersen v. CJ Am., Inc., 2016 WL 5719828, at *3 (S.D. Cal. Sept. 30, 2016) (granting

1 final approval of a consumer class action settlement and acknowledged that appropriate notice 2 regarding the settlement and that “no such objections or comments were received.”).

3 F. Reactions of Class Members

4 To date, there has been only one objection, filed by Patrick S. Sweeney, a serial objector⁶
5 and convicted felon.⁷ Chiango Decl. Ex. G. Plaintiff will respond in full to Mr. Sweeney’s 6 meritless objection when filing her response to objections on October 17, 2018.

7 No other Settlement Class Member has objected to the Settlement.⁸ Chiango Decl. ¶ 14; 8 see also Churchill, 361 F.3d at 577 (weighing the low number of objectors in favor of settlement).
9 The absence of legitimate objections raises a strong presumption that the terms of the Settlement
10 are favorable to the Class. Nat’l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221 F.R.D. 523, 529
11 (C.D. Cal. 2004) (“[T]he absence of a large number of objections to a proposed class action 12 settlement raises a strong presumption that the terms of the proposed class action settlement are 13 favorable to the class members.”). Notice was successfully mailed or emailed directly to over 14 164,000 potential Settlement Class Members (Chiango Decl. ¶¶ 7-8), the Court approved media
15 plan has been active since July 5, 2018, (id. ¶10) and more than 100,000 Settlement Class Members 16 have submitted claims. Id. ¶15. Despite this massive outreach to, and involvement of, the 17 Settlement Class there has been only one objection and seven additional requests for exclusion. Id.

18 _____
19 ⁶ Mr. Sweeney’s history of meritless objections is long enough that instead of providing the record
20 to the Court, he has simply referred the parties to the website www.serialobjector.com. Chiango 21 Decl. Ex.G. As a “professional objector,” Mr. Sweeney has been criticized by numerous courts 22 across the country. See In re Polyurethane Foam Antitrust Litigation, 178 F.Supp.3d 635 (N.D.
23 Ohio 2016), (the conduct of Mr. Sweeney and the other objectors “resembles scavenger ants on a 24 jelly roll, scrambling to extort money from the approved settlements.”); Roberts v. Electrolux 25 Home Prods., Inc., 2014 WL 4568632, at *12-*15 (C.D. Cal. Sep. 11, 2014) (“The Court has 26 considered the objections of Mr. Sweeney, overrules them in their entirety, finds that they are not 27 made for the purpose of benefitting the Class, and finds that they are meritless in all respects.”); In 28 re TRS Recovery Servs., 2016 WL 543137, at *6 n.16 (D. Me. Feb. 10, 2016) (same); In re Carrier
IQ, Inc., 2016 WL 4474366, at *5 (N.D. Cal. Aug. 25, 2016) (same); Chambers v. Whirlpool, 214
F.Supp.3d 877, 890 n. 7 (C.D. Cal. 2016) (same); Martin v. Global Marketing Research Services, Inc., at 2 (M.D. Fl. Nov. 4, 2016) (same).

⁷ On July 21, 2017, Mr. Sweeney pled guilty to violating 18 U.S.C. § 152(3) for bankruptcy fraud.
See United States v. Patrick S. Sweeney, Case No. 3:16-cr-00103-jdp, Dkt. Nos. 32, 39 (W.D. Wis.
July 21, 2017).

⁸ The deadlines for filing objections has not yet occurred. The deadline to object o the Settlement is October 3, 2018. After that deadline, Plaintiff will submit a supplemental declaration attesting to the number of objections and opt-outs.

1 ¶¶ 13-14. “[T]he fact that the overwhelming majority of the class willingly approved the offer and 2 stayed in the class presents at least some objective positive commentary as to its fairness.” Hanlon, 3 150 F.3d at 1027. The absence of legitimate objections raises a strong presumption that the terms
4 of the Settlement are favorable to the Class. Nat’l Rural Telecomms. Coop. v. DIRECTV, Inc., 221
5 F.R.D. 523, 529 (C.D. Cal. 2004) (“[T]he absence of a large number of objections to a proposed 6 class action settlement raises a strong presumption that the terms of the proposed class action 7 settlement are favorable to the class members.”).

8 To put these numbers in perspective, of the Settlement Class Members who responded to 9 the notices, more than 100,000 individuals have submitted timely claim forms while only seven 10 individuals have opted out and one has objected (approximately .008% of the total responses).
11 Chiango Decl., ¶¶ 13-15; Chun-Hoon v. McKee Foods Corp., 716 F. Supp. 2d 848, 852 (N.D. Cal.
12 2010) (where “[a] total of zero objections and sixteen opt-outs (comprising 4.86% of the class) 13 were made from the class of roughly three hundred and twenty-nine (329) members,” that the 14 reaction of the class “strongly supports settlement.”); see also Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1027 (“[T]he 15 fact that the overwhelming majority of the class willingly approved the offer and stayed in the class 16 presents at least some objective positive commentary as to its fairness”). Here, since there is only 17 one objection from a serial objector and seven exclusion requests, the Court should find that the 18 “presumption of fairness” applies in this Settlement and this factor should weigh heavily in favor 19 of Settlement approval.

20 V. NOTICE

21 The Parties agreed to a notice plan, which the Court approved in its Preliminary Approval 22 Order. See Dkt. No. 185 at 4 (“The Court determines that the Class Notice, as set forth in the 23 parties’ Stipulation of Settlement, complies with all legal requirements, including but not limited to 24 the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution. Thus, the Court directs that Class Notice 25 shall be given to the Class as provided herein and in Section IV of the parties’ Stipulation of 26 Settlement.”). The Settlement Administrator implemented the approved notice plan, which 27 informed the Settlement Class of their rights and followed a comprehensive plan for delivery of 28 notice by U.S. postal mail, e-mail, publication, and Internet placement, and was the best notice

1 practicable given the circumstances of this action. Chiango Decl. ¶¶ 3-12.⁹ Furthermore, the 2 notices accurately informed Class Members of the salient terms of the Stipulation of Settlement, 3 the date of the final approval hearing and the rights of all parties, including the rights to file 4 objections and to opt out of the Class. See Dkt. No. 185 at ¶¶ 8.b and 8.d. Indeed, this method of 5 giving notice (similar if not identical to the method used in countless other class actions) was 6 appropriate because it provided a fair opportunity for members of the Settlement Class to learn 7 about the Stipulation of Settlement and to make an informed decision regarding the proposed 8 Settlement. Thus, the notices and the procedures embodied in the notices amply satisfy the 9 requirements of due process.

10 VI. CONCLUSION

11 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully request that the Court grant final approval 12 to the Stipulation of Settlement and enter the Final Approval Order in the form submitted herewith.

27 ⁹ Pursuant to Stipulation of Settlement, Article 4.5, Plaintiff also asks the Court to authorize the 28 actual costs and expenses of the Settlement Administrator, currently estimated at $897,220, to be paid from the Settlement Fund. The Settlement Administrator will submit an updated cost estimate prior to the Final Approval Hearing on November 15, 2018.
